Section D: Comprehension

Read the passage carefully.

Last Saturday, Ryan and his sister Mia went to the community garden with their grandfather. They wanted to help him plant some vegetables. At first, Ryan complained that the weather was too hot. However, once he started digging the soil, he found the work enjoyable. Mia watered the young plants carefully while Grandfather showed them how to remove tiny weeds around the stems.

After an hour, the family rested under a shady tree. Grandfather told them that growing vegetables took patience and care. Ryan looked at the neat rows of plants and felt proud of what they had done. Before leaving, he promised to return the following week.

Answer the questions.
